R. F. Ballard for County Clerk.

The Record is today authorized to announce R. F. Ballard as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk of Chaves county, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries May 9th.

Mr. Ballard served as county clerk by appointment of the county commissioners to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Fred P. Gayle, deceased, for 1910 and 1911. He was elected to the present term at the first statehood election in 1911 and has made a most satisfactory clerk during the several years of his service in that capacity. Mr. Ballard, ("Dick" Ballard as he is generally known throughout the county) is favorably known in all parts of the country and there is scarcely a voter therein who has not had more or less personal dealings with him and even the supporters of his able opponent have to admit that his clean and acceptable way of handling the office—and his courteous and attentive manner of meeting them at his desk and attending to their personal matters demands the most careful consideration by all voters of the claims made upon them before casting their vote in the primaries on May 9th.

Will Chase the Voter Via Auto.

Frank M. Bechler, who is in the city today in the interest of his candidacy for tax assessor, has purchased an automobile with which to chase the elusive voter. Mr. Bechler explains that he needed the machine at his ranch near Olive, anyway, and thought it might incidentally help to annihilate the space of the flatness over which he will be compelled to make his canvass.—Roswell News.

Today's blizzards gently reminds one that too premature spring preparations are out of order. Throw old Bossy an extra bundle of fodder and crawl back into the flannels.

Read the announcement columns carefully so that you may vote intelligently on May 9th.

A few days ago we heard a man say "The mice got to my land deeds and ate them up." Now if you are a patron of this bank you will be given a free space in our vault to place your valuable papers, where they will be safe from mice, fire and carelessness.

When in town you are welcome to make our office your headquarters—if the weather is cold, roast your shins by our stove, and if it is hot you may sit in the shade and fan yourself with the Kenna Record.

We take pleasure in assisting you with your financial difficulties if we can consistently do so, even if we have to work over hours to do it.
